Let me ask you, have you ever said to yourself, “ I would love to travel and see the rest of the world,” or “ I would love to have a more fulfilling and successful life? ” After which you suddenly snapped back to reality and said— “ Oh well. ” Why do we say “ oh well ” and dismiss the many desires we have, never attempting to obtain them? Do we feel those things are for someone else? An elite group of people, or someone with an IQ off the charts? Statics show, 67 percent of the population has a general idea of what they want, but only about 10 percent of the population go after their dreams . Why do we see what we want, but most never reach out to grab it—relationships, career changes, weight loss and many other things we long to have or do? Also answer this, why do we continue to go to a job we hate? I know—we need money to pay the bills, but everybody needs money, even the successful ones in life. Yet many have broken through the “ invisible barrier ” some believe, separates the winners from the losers. Also, is it possible many of us are victims of our past? I know for some, those are unsettling questions, but it ’ s not a coincidence why many are not pursuing their dreams, but is a result of what I call “ The Passion Thieves! ” Most of us are unaware of the many subtle passion thieves that steal our momentum in life. The New Christianity is about concerted efforts seeking to infiltrate the gospel of Jesus Christ and turn it into a changeable document based on desired lifestyle. This infiltration is not limited to just sins of the flesh; it includes the highest levels of the church, government, civic groups, and gays and lesbians, all forcing their influence into the ship of the church. They have found a place of comfort, but is Jesus at the helm?

Church today is nothing like it was when I was growing up in Baton Rouge and New Orleans, Louisiana, during the 70s and 80s; and I understand that as times change, things change. One of the biggest changes that the church has gone through is the lack of commitment to its given mandate and ministries. There are so many distractions today that people tend to work God into their personal schedules, instead of working their schedules around God and His ministry. This book addresses the challenges and issues of the seven churches of Asia Minor in Revelation Chapters 2 and 3 and speaks how we can strive to be the church that Jesus is coming back to receive unto Himself.

In preparation to become a finished product one must undergo a process which is designed to build you by way of a series of experiences. It is through these experiences that our identity is ultimately defined. Identity is who God calls and the process is what reveals over the course of time. Process reveals who God called before the foundations of the world. In God ’ s process of spiritual development we will face the unexpected. But it is during these times that tenacity is developed. This persistency reinforces and brands the product in production. Henceforth, at the appointed time the product is ready for release. The process is designed to pull out the essences of your individuality specifically carved by the hand of God. We are God ’ s product and are fashioned as such to withstand the intensity of the turns the process takes us through.

This book, written in simple English, is targeted at everyone that can read the scholarly, not-so-scholarly, and inquisitive-minded, persons. It should whet the appetite of the inquisitive minded, causing them to conduct further researches into numerous other aspects of the person and work of Jesus Christ. The book considers the sinfulness of mankind from his fall through the coming of the Savior, noting that sin is not the exclusive reserve of any particular people but of the whole of mankind. And the salvation that the gracious, almighty God offers through Jesus Christ alone is also to not just a few, but all who believe in Jesus Christ. Jesus Christ is Prophet, Priest, and King. He is also Savior/Redeemer and Judge. He is Creator of the universe and the Mediator between God and man. There were prophets, but Jesus is the Son of God. There were priests and high priests who had to enter God's presence in the holiest place with blood of an animal in their hands. But Jesus Christ is the Everlasting High Priest, who entered the presence of God with His own unblemished blood once for all and remains with God the Father in heaven, pleading our cause. There were/are kings also. But Jesus Christ is the King of kings and Lord of lords. There were, and are, judges. But Jesus Christ is the Righteous Judge that will on behalf of God the Father judge the living and the dead without favoritism or sentiments. He alone is the Savior and Redeemer of mankind. Jesus Christ shall soon return to set up his millennial kingdom on earth.

Examine the foundation of union with Christ ’ s death and resurrection as a source of salvation. Explain the idea that as ordinary death alters legal relationships, death in Christ alters the believer ’ s legal obligations. The penalty that the law exacts is death, but those who have died through union with Christ have already suffered this penalty; the law has no authority to condemn them further. Discuss the law of marriage— when one partner dies, the law governing the relationship ceases to apply, and remarriage is not sin. Convey that believers rose to new life through union with Christ in the resurrection, and are free to belong to Christ for the purpose of bearing fruit to God. Illustrate that the old Adamic marriage to the law ceased to exist; believers are no longer under law, but are released from it. Describe the new marriage, an entry in to a new life dominated by the Holy Spirit, who gives new power to fulfill the holy laws of God.

Many Christians believe and have been taught that the bride of Christ is the church, and this presupposition is widely held by scholars, ministers, and laity alike as though it were a biblical precept. Yet this view actually owes its origins to pagan heresy and mysticism that infiltrated the church over the centuries. In fact, the scriptures tell us who Jesus will marry and it is neither the Christian church nor Israel. Shekinah Unveiled examines and irrevocably dismantles the ages-old traditions that maintain that the church is the bride of Christ and that Israel was Yahweh's wife. Author and theologian John Whitman proves, from scripture, who the true bride of Christ and the wives of Yahweh are, and he explains why it matters to know the identity of the bride of Christ. Knowledge of the true identity of the bride of Christ affects multiple core doctrines of faith: the imago Dei, marriage, sexuality and the family, sin, Christology, ecclesiology, eschatology, judgment, bridal theology, and theology proper. And because the latter is itself the bedrock upon which not only systematic theology but each of these other attendant doctrines are founded, the very heart of Christianity is affected by knowing the identity of Christs bride.

Women as Pastors: Ordained by God or Allowed by Men? is a powerful look into the controversial idea of Women as pastors. Can they do it, should they do it, are they allowed to do it? Dr. Anderson provides a seriously compelling argument that will pull the reader into understanding what the bible really says on the subject. Dr. Anderson is careful to structure the reading in a way for the reader to feel a need to study the biblical text further on the subject. He offers several scriptures to lead the reader and the "misplaced leader" into the right thinking on the subject. Dr. Anderson makes clear his position and thoroughly illustrates to the reader what support he uses to make his point. Accordingly, this may be the first book to discuss the issue straight forward and without any major deviations from the subject matter. Dr. Anderson stays true to the subject matter throughout the book and draws the reader into the "right" understanding chapter after chapter.
