Instead, it provides a fresh perspective on a topic of perennial interest for those working in the field that has been variously called training and development, human resource development, performance technology, and

workplace learning

and performance. The fresh perspective
takes into consideration two additional instructor

that most instructors
and trainers know --
that is, online and
blended settings.

These settings are, of course, becoming more critical as instruction moves beyond classroom settings to include virtual and combinations of classroom and other media delivery methods. The ibstpi instructor competencies match up well to Mapping the Future (Bernthal,

Naughton, Rothwell,

current ASTD

and previously known as Training and

WLP is more than a

subject and Olympian

represents a fundamental paradigm shift in what it means to be a professional in the field formerly known as training. WLP is all about getting
improved
performance -- and
therefore improved
results -- in organizational

settings through

planned and
unplanned learning
interventions.

Instruction is thus a means to an end and not an end in itself.

The ibstpi instructor
competencies dovetail
well with that philosophy.
