Hearts in Conflict - Derek N. Burnell 2010-07

In 1947, the spiritual integrity of America's most revered convent and orphanage is violated by the hate-fuelled, blasphemous behaviour of a celebrity guest during her prolonged labour. In 1985, the body of a direct descendant of King Louis VII is found amongst the rocks beneath his Italian cliff-face villa. Was his death murder or suicide? In 1986, in New Zealand's picturesque Bay of Islands, the historic township of Russell is terrorised by a manic pilot during Sunday Mass. These seemingly unconnected events mark the beginning of a string of incidents that plague the town, and coincide with the arrival of a debonair stranger. Hearts in Conflict is an amazing, emotion-stirring novel that interweaves the stories of colourful characters, revenge-filled plots spanning decades, and suspected murders, which all combine to create a tapestry of intrigue and suspense. Derek Burnell was born and raised in Adelaide, Australia, and after traveling extensively, now lives on Queensland's Gold Coast. The contributions are linked as well through empire, discussing different parts of the British Empire and allowing for the comparative examination of colonial policies and practices.

The Bear Who Wasn't There - LeUyen Pham 2016-11-15

This book is about Bear... so what happens when he doesn't show up on his page? Who will find him? Will it be Giraffe, who himself seems to always be in the wrong place at the wrong time, or Cow, or perhaps even the author herself? One thing's for sure--it probably won't be Duck. Duck doesn't seem concerned that Bear is missing. In fact, he seems to be trying to steal the show for himself! Duck would much prefer that the reader pick up his own book, The Duck Who Showed Up. He even disguises himself as Bear in an attempt to fool the reader. But after pages and pages of Duck's antics and search-party chaos, Bear appears somewhere utterly unexpected. In fact, it looks like someone may have tried to get rid of him on purpose... LeUyen Pham's The Bear Who Wasn't There takes readers a hilarious search for the missing title character.

Mari raised her sign for everyone to see. Even though she was small and the crowd was very big, and she didn't think anyone would hear, she yelled out. Mari is getting ready to make a sign with crayon as the streets below her fill up with people. "What are we making, Mama?" she asks. "A message for the world," Mama says. "How will the whole world hear?" Mari wonders. "They'll hear," says Mama, "because love is powerful." Inspired by a girl who participated in the January 2017 Women's March in New York City, Heather Dean Brewer's simple and uplifting story, delightfully illustrated by LeUyen Pham, is a reminder of what young people can do to promote change and equality at a time when our country is divided by politics, race, gender, and religion.
